

Jogustine Quick guide

The university's data center, ZDV, provides detailed information on the most common use cases in Jogustine on their website: <https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/>

In the following, you will find a collection of links leading to the data center's relevant webpages.

How do I activate my university account?

After your first enrollment at the University of Mainz, you have to activate your university account.

A step-by-step guide is provided online by the ZDV data center:

Account Activation for Students after First Enrollment

How do I access Jogustine?

<https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/registration-web-portal/>

How do I choose my specialization?

(only applicable for students with start of studies up to the winter semester 2021/22)

<https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/specialization-electives/>

How do I register for courses?

First, you have to register for a module. After that you can register for the corresponding lectures and tutorials. A step-by-step guide is provided here:

<https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/registering-course/>

How do I register for exams?

<https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/registering-exam/>

How do I deregister from an exam?

<https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/deregistering-exam/>

What do I need to know about the usage of TANs in Jogustine?

<https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/tan-procedure/>

What do I do if I lost or blocked my TAN list?

<https://info.jogustine.en.uni-mainz.de/students/tan-procedure/losing-tan-list/>